Features * Feature fireplace * Central heating * Mature garden with three sets of gates * Granite work surfaces * Roof terrace * Power showers * Fully furnished * Stunning sea views * Poolside shower and toilet * Parking for six cars * Security locks on all doors and windows This large four bedroom bungalow is set in a prestigious location looking down to Geronisos Island and Ayios Georgios. The plot is very secure and has access through three sets of gates. The front door is protected by an entrance porch and it leads into a hallway leading into the spacious lounge which has patio doors enjoying the views and looking onto the pool deck. The lounge leads into the dining area via an archway and a second archway leads into the kitchen. The four spacious bedrooms have ensuite bathrooms two with hillside views up to the Meletis Forest and two with sea views. There is an external staircase up to a roof terrace and steps down to the pool deck and the mature garden which has its own irrigation system. This is an area of Ayios Georgios with large plots, low building density and bespoke architect designed villas.
