Olympus View is only 10 minutes drive from Paphos centre in Kallepia which is a typical semi-rural Cypriot village, with all the amenities and conveniences just a short drive away. Olive Olympus View is located on the edge of the village, enjoying commanding panoramic mountain views of the Troodos Mountain range and Mount Olympus. The neighboring village of Tsada has long been a favorite place for property purchasers, and Kallepia is now becoming more appealing to the more discerning purchaser who wants to be away from the hustle and bustle of the Harbour tourism. This is truly an ideal location to purchase for residential or investment purpose, Where else can you bask in the sunshine amongst the almond groves and vineyards and yet only be a few minutes drive from the popular Tsada Golf Course? This two bedroom bungalow will be built to the highest specification with extensive natural sandstone used. The development will consist of six bungalows and one villa.
