Owning a property in Paforama Village also makes perfect sense from an investment point of view. Not only has the complex been designed by an elite team of acknowledged and respected architects, which is reflected in both the aesthetic and functional superiority of the Village, but you will always be secure in the knowledge that an this property is a secure property.

Then of course there is the location which in property terms is always vital. Located on a hilltop just on the outskirts of the town, Paforama Village is just five minutes from any number of Pafos' Blue Flag beaches, and fifteen minutes from both Pafos International Airport and the acclaimed Secret Valley Golf Resort.

As for the development itself, picture three secure gatehouses with strict electronic entrances, five luxurious swimming pools each with its own circular kiosk incorporating a wet bar, store room and gender specific ablution facilities. And that's not forgetting the larger than usual actual apartments and maisonettes, ranging from 1, 2 and 3 bedrooms. You could even make that extra little investment and go for a special luxury package with your own Jacuzzi and barbeque on your roof garden.

Whichever way you look at it, investing in Paforama Village makes perfect sense, from any point of view.
